Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Mining Magazine, Vol. 27: From July to December, 1922 Introductory. - The outlook is slowly but steadily improving. The end of the engineers lock-out has put life into the manufacturing trades once more, and the iron and steel output is gradually increasing. The Irish position seems more hopeful now that the Provisional Government has tackled the rebels. The Continental position is, however, bad, the further fall in the mark being the latest evidence of this. Transvaal. - to most people's surprise a number of the mining companies on the Rand have declared dividends for the first half of 1922. Seeing not only that the production of gold was at a standstill for two months, but that the expenditure during that time was considerable, a general suspension of dividends would have been justified. Also the provision of funds for the purchase of enemy shares might be expected to deplete the companies financial resources. But there is a general feeling of optimism with regard to the future efficiency of labour, and the declaration of dividends reflects this attitude. Some controlling houses have, however, preferred to keep their funds in hand. The accompanying table gives the dividends declared.
