A unique teenage perspective on Wicca, elemental powers, and love. Check out the book trailer for Playing with Fire: // Black haired, black eyed Aidan Garrison returned to Ethelville Wyoming to live with his mother, a practicing Wiccan, after the death of his father. With the entire student body at Devil s Den High behaving like robotic drones, Aidan is forced to accept the possibility that his mother s beliefs are more than just a silly superstition his father had raised him to disbelieve. Aidan has discovered that he has a powerful connection to the element of fire, but the stronger his gift becomes the less control he has over the frightening ability. Meeting beautiful red haired, green eyed Kyla Rosendale, he is determined to save her from the fate that has befallen the rest of the students at school, even if it means convincing her of the existence of witchcraft, the very thing he s been loath to accept. Kyla is stuck in this tiny backwards town with her mom, after her father left them for another woman. Unsure what to believe, she has to admit that something weird is happening at the school, and her new friend Aidan seems to be capable of strange and terrifying things. Derrick, the only normal boy in town, seems determined to win her heart, and in addition to all of that, Kyla discovers a frightening connection to the spirit world. Steeped in a world of mystery and frightening new discoveries will Kyla and Aidan be able to use their new abilities to save the school, or will this strange world of Wicca and magic be too much for them to handle?.
