A twelve year old girl named Tina goes out with her Mom and Dad almost every weekend to search for Spanish Treasure off the Florida Keys. They drag a small magnetometer off the side of their cabin cruiser Lucky Girl, hoping to make a discovery. Every weekend theyre disappointed, but Tinas dad is sure that one day theyll make a discovery and theyll all be rich! Finally, one afternoon, when a terrible storm is about to hit, their mag finally comes to life and indicates that something big is just thirty feet down. Tina and her father quickly pull on flippers, grab a mask and go over the side to see whats below them. Theyre shocked to see a fortune in gold coins, trinkets and bars, spread out on the sand. Frantically they both start picking up hand-fuls of gold coins and hurriedly bring them back to the boat. But after just three quick dives, the storm is upon them and Tinas dad knows they must head for home. During the terrible storm Lucky Girl drops into a deep trough from which it cannot escape. When Lucky Girl goes down, only Tina is able to fight her way to the surface and survive, because Lucky Girls life ring pops to the surface next to her. After floating all night on the life ring and hanging on to one golden Spanish coin, shes picked up the next morning by Captain Ortega, whos heading out to the fishing grounds off Key West in his shrimp boat. The friendly shrimp captain eventually becomes her official guardian, raises her as his own and sends her to the University of Miami where she graduates with...
