Relationships between Women's Marginality and Career
Success

LAP LAMBERT Academic Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 284 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. Feminists have chronicled the deep stirrings felt by women excluded from choices and marginalised from power in organisations. This book explores the experiences of marginality for women who work in organisations and its associations to occupational stress and career success. Stress is viewed as a misfit between an individual's personal values and the environmental supplies available to fulfil those values. This is a shift...
