By Mike Sasser

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Every year across all industries, millions of people are injured on the job--and thousands of these injuries result in death. But it doesn't have to be this way. The Good Hand is a quick, insightful read that examines how an on-the-job injury can change your life--along with the lives of family, friends, and coworkers--and how to prevent it. Whether you're working in an office or on an oil rig, this book offers an insider's view of workplace safety that translates to all areas of your life. Written by a former health and safety manager, The Good Hand investigates the causes of a theoretical injury, the sequence of events that led up to it, and the preventative measures that could have been taken. Both employees and management will learn valuable tips about workplace safety, and gain awareness about an issue that affects so many lives each year. It is no longer acceptable for people to get hurt doing a job. Learn how to prevent workplace incidents with The Good Hand, and don't let a life-changing injury happen to...
