LOVE IS COLOUR BLIND: HOW A CHILD CHANGED MY LIFE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This manuscript started off as letter, a letter to try and explain the chain of events that led up to a point where I decided to become a full time mom. I met my son when he was a mere 6-month-old baby who stole my heart the instant I laid eyes on him. We face a lot of challenges and through scripture I am guided by the Holy Spirit into making the right decisions, not only for myself but for my son too. I might not have listened every time but He never stopped guiding me. I was born into a Christian family and I have always had a relationship with my Saviour. I went through my rebel teen years and the Holy Spirit guided me towards the life changing moment when I met my son. Everything I am, I am through the love of my Heavenly Father. This book goes deep into who I am and undresses every part of my being, so that the reader knows exactly what I am feeling and how I got through it in the end, not alone, not without a whole string of wrong decisions, but with God right by my side. Being judged and spat on for trying to do good in this world is a challenge I found most difficult to accept. I realized that people didn't understand why I did what I did and by writing this book I hope I made it clear enough for everyone to see. I chose to love instead of hate. I chose to listen to God's voice and not be discouraged by my fellow Christians who felt that I am stabbing...
