I chose to be an astronomer because I believe that in the universe it is possible to find God. Father Jose Gabriel Funes, Director of the Vatican Observatory. (Interview The extraterrestrial is my Brother in LOsservatore Romano, 2008). The plot of this science fiction novel is based on the hypothesis that Christ was interacting with an advanced extraterrestrial civilization during his time on Earth, a theory becoming increasingly important supported by the sensational scientific discoveries in recent decades. The sign of growing influence of this concept is the recognition of the possible existence of extraterrestrial civilizations stated by high-ranking clergy in the Vatican. The author attempts to reconstruct the possible relationship between Christ and the aliens could be and at the same time the traditionally flat figure of Jesus is focused on a new angle by emphasizing His human nature and bringing us closer to Him. The novel begins with these words: Jesus was smiling while taking a bite of a thin stalk of grass remembering something that had happened the day before. This morning he woke up very early...
