Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From The Union Bulletin, Volume 11 [1921]: Disarmament Council Publishes Textbook. An informational handbook intended for those actively engaged in promoting a world peace movement has just been published by the National Council for Reduction of Armaments, of which the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods has become a cooperating member. The book is called War on War, and is the work of Frederick J. Libby. The book is divided into four chapters dealing with the prevention of war as a duty, a possibility, an immediate program and a societal aim that refutes all the arguments of the skeptics, respectively. Some of the practical steps either initiated or suggested for the prevention of wars, such as the League of Nations, the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armaments and the proposed World Association of Nations are discussed in the book. * * * * * An excerpt from the beginning of: CHAPTER I. WE MUST END WAR NOW, OR PERISH I. Why We Must 1. London in a Gas Raid. Is it true that practically the entire population of London could be killed by gas within twelve hours? Thomas A. Edison was asked recently. It is not true, he replied, the thing could be done within three hours. There is in existence no means of preventing an airplane flotilla from flying over London tomorrow and spreading over the millions of Londoners a gas which would asphyxiate those millions in a relatively short time. 2. The Lewisite Gas. The Americans had ready for the 1919 campaign the Lewisite gas, a mysterious compound whose effects, however, are known. It is invisible; it sinks so that it searches out life in cellars and dugouts; breathed, it is instantaneously...
